

A Year To Remember At Central High School

Created by a few for so many, the Breaker is the summary of a year at Central High. Between these covers are captured the spirit, elegance, and beauty of our school. On these pages are recorded the fragments of our year, and the impression our personalities leave in the history of Central High. This book is bound with your laughter and imprinted with your hopes for the future. You will see more in these pictures than we could ever express in words, for they are portraits of you, the essence of Central High. This is your diary, your calendar, and your almanac--The 1961 BREAKER.

In the past year, one person has endeared herself to the Class of 1961. By giving more than her time, more than her energy, more than her ideas, indeed, by giving herself, she has guided and encouraged the members of the Senior Class during their most important year. Try as we may, we can never fully express our love and appreciation to one who has done so much for our class. In hope of showing our gratitude in some small way, we have humbly dedicated the 1961 Breaker to

Our School Board

The Central School District Committee is charged with the responsibility of formulating school policy, electing teachers, and acting as trustees of the buildings and property.

The committee members are educationally-minded public servants who serve only for the improvement of the school. They meet on the first Thursday night of each month with the principal to review past achievements and plan for future progress.

They are also very active in supporting the school in fund raising and other outside school activities.

Class History

Through the mist of early morning, in the month of September, 1949, a wagon train began its 12 year journey toward Graduation City. The purpose of this journey was to achieve knowledge.

After completing eight years of our journey we stopped at a village in the plains of the Middle West called Newland. Here we accepted eleven new friends. Two thirds of our journey was soon completed and we entered a higher and more rugged struggle. Upon reaching Freshman City we looked about us to find that many of those who had started on the journey had dropped out to take some other trail in life. Those who did remain were included in the many activities and changes surrounding them.

During the three month drive between Freshman and Sophomore City we realized that our wagon of supplies and money were low. The women folk baked cakes, pies, and cookies to sell to the families of the city. The ladies worked hard and made a profit of $57.74. The men folk, with the help of the women, decided to give a good ole country sock dance. Refreshments were served and everyone enjoyed themselves thoroughly. A profit of $40.59 was made.

In Sophomore City we observed the old tradition of ordering our class rings and giving the Senior wagon a party. Refreshments and dancing were enjoyed by all. Next stop was Junior City. In Junior City our main objectives were the Junior-Senior Banquet and Dance and the receiving of our rings. Thirty-seven of the stouter and more courageous ones reached Senior City and proceeded on toward our goal, Graduation City. While in Senior City our objectives were the Senior Play, getting our annual out and preparing for graduation. We had determined to see a successful end to our journey and with quickened interest we set our faces toward our destination.

The last part of our journey was easier. After crossing the highest mountains into Graduation City we looked far out upon the ocean realizing our journey had been completed and a newer and brighter future lay ahead.

Senior Class Prophecy

Did I hear someone say that there were no signs of success in the hearts and minds of those 1961 Seniors of "good old Central High." Was it you? Oh, yes, no doubt. But do you know...

Jean Sawyer can be seen everyday at noon preparing cornbread for her farmer husband's dinner.

Joe N. Sawyer succeeded at last in impersonating "Elvis" and is now appearing on the Jack Parr Show.

Aubrey Seymour, now one of the nation's top nuclear physicists, has just developed a new satellite to circle a satellite.

Donald Taft, well-known playboy, has just taken Liz away from Eddie. Good luck, "'Duck".

Toni Tarkenton holds the title of "The World's Only Female Stock Car Driver".

Billy Temple, well-known beatnick in Greenwich Village, can be seen still running around in circles.

Gloria Jean Temple and Frances Tillett are sponsoring a Lonely Heart's Club. (Care to join, lonely girls?)

William Tuttle is still trying to graduate. The School Board is contemplating giving him an honorary diploma just to get rid of him.

Gail Townsend and her famous "Kiddie Show" have put Captain Kangaroo out of business.

William Boyce has just been made editor of THE DAILY ADVANCE. Elizabeth City will never be the same.

Kaye Brothers and Hattie Carol Russell are partners in business. They own and operate "Milady's Charm School".

James Carter is now the star attraction in the "World Championship Rodeo."

J. C. Harris, formerpitcher of the Pittsburg Pirates, is now manager and is going into the World Series.

Judy Hurdle, well-known model, has just decided to dye her hair greenish-purple.

Clayton Jones has become quite well known for the results he has achieved with his muscle-building physical education course.

Margie Key, an unmarried writer, has just finished her latest book, "21 Ways to Catch a Man".

Billy McPherson, still interested in athletics, is representing the United States in the next Olympic races.

L. P. McPherson, has designed a new sports car guaranteed to take those sharp curves faster than 30 M.P.H.

Mike Brothers, nationally syndicated columnist has just written an article entitled "The Truth About '56 Fords".

Tommy Brite, the first man to reach the moon, is trying to get permission from Washington to return to earth.

George Copeland is manager of Elizabeth City's zoo. His feature attraction is the "World's Most Intelligent Animal of It's Kind"-Tommy Ward, alias Zippy.

Rufus Jackson has just been promoted to Sergeant of the local Highway Patrol Unit.

Cora Lee Jarvis and Kay Hooker, nurses at the Mayo Clinic, are feeding the patients poison and breaking the doctors hearts.

Leon Jordan is running touchdowns professionally for the Baltimore Colts.

Larry Larabee, most successful farmer of Pasquotank County, is noted for his ability to produce outstanding and odd crops.

Lenon Madre doesn't need English, math, or history. His wife is 20 years older but she has 20 million for each year.

Billie Anne Reid, owner of a riding academy in Elizabeth City, can be seen trying to teach her nine months old twins how to stay on a horse.

Becky Winslow can be seen washing windows at her ranch-style home in Newland. "Melvin Jr." and "Little Mattie" are watching from the play pen.

Don Winslow, famous concert pianist, has been seen every night on most channels giving "a really big shew".

Patsy Winslow, famous clothes designer, has started a new trend in animal skin dresses called "The Primitive Look".

Donnie Wood runs an "I Carry Everything" store at Morgan's Corner, the capitol of Newland.

Alice Faye Elliott is comfortably settled in the lower part of Camden County doing the family laundry every other day.
